WHAT IS . . .

Bruschetta (broo-shet-tuh) Chicken is a grilled chicken breast that has been marinated in a vinaigrette dressing, then topped with basil pesto, roma tomato, and mozzarella cheese. It's served with orzo, which is a type of pasta often mistaken for rice due to its shape.

Unstuffed Bell Peppers are everything you would expect in a stuffed pepper - ground beef, rice, tomatoes, cheese, and of course bell peppers - but served casserole style.
